CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S SACRIFICE FOR PEACE IN EUROPE

Dramatic Telegram To Commons' Speaker

Application Of Principles Of Territorial Cession Bitterly Criticised

Prague, October 2.

"WE BEQUEATH OUR SORROW TO THE FRENCH AND BRITISH PEOPLES," states the concluding phrase of a dramatic telegram addressed by the President of the Czech Chamber of Deputies and Senate to the Speaker of the House of Commons and the President of the French Chamber.

THE TELEGRAM REFERS TO CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S sacrifice for peace in Europe and criticises bitterly the application of the principles of cession of territory and various other details of the Munich Agreement, and appeals to the noble spirits of Europe and the world to recognise Czechoslovakia's position and understand the moral revolution which caused the punishment of a nation which wanted nothing more than to fulfil its obligations.

Referring to acceptance of the Anglo-French plan, the telegram states:—

"We supposed that application of the principles of cession of territory would be carried out so that it would be tolerable and over a period of time.

"In particular, we supposed that vital interests, economic transport and livelihood would be properly respected.

"We were all the more unpleasantly surprised when the Munich Conference paid no attention to promises given us with regard to our defence and our vital interests, especially our most important communications, supplies and most essential raw materials.

"Instead, this territory has to be transferred within a few days.

"There has been no final settlement regarding the question of compensation for State property or the interests of thousands and thousands of people.

"The question of minorities has been left in complete obscurity. This is a painful fact which leaves an ineffaceable scar in our hearts."

GERMAN-FRANC UNDERSTANDING

NEGOTIATIONS CONCERNING SPANISH WAR

Berlin, Oct. 2.

It is understood that the German Government has offered to arrange an understanding with France similar to that concluded between Britain and Germany, and it is hoped that the offer will be accepted within a few days.

A report circulating in well-informed circles states that negotiations are likely to take place between British and foreign statesmen aboard a yacht in the Mediterranean concerning the Spanish war.

It is likely that Hitler will make a short visit to Sudetenland in the future.

It is understood that the German military authorities have given the strictest instructions that Sudeten territory be occupied in such a manner that likelihood of incidents is reduced to a minimum.—Reuter.

CHINESE, JAPANESE CONSOLIDATING POSITIONS

Heavy Toll Of Lives Paid For Possession Of Tienchiachen

Hankow, October 2.

AFTER THE SANGUINARY BATTLE AT TIENCHIACHEN, strategic town on the north bank of the Yangtze River above Wusueh, both the Chinese and Japanese are consolidating their positions, according to military advice.

Owing to the heavy toll of lives paid for possession of the important fort, the Japanese troops which entered Tienchiachen are said to be calling in reinforcements in anticipation of a possible Chinese counter-offensive.

The Chinese around Kwangsi are taking the offensive to disrupt Japanese contact between that city and Tienchiachen.

Chinese counter-attacks in south-eastern Honan have resulted in the recapture of seven hills south of Shanghai. The Japanese defeated in their attempt to drive southward into Hupeh have retired to Wanghsien and Tachuanien, about 25 kilometres from the Hupeh border, south of Shanghai.

Besides continuing their frontal attacks, the Chinese are sending strong units of troops to threaten the Japanese rear by a detour. The same tactics are being employed by the Chinese against the Japanese at Shawo, to the southwest of Shanghai, midway between Hwanghsien and Macheng on the southern Honan border.

GERMAN AIR LINER MISSING DURING FLIGHT

Fails To Reach Milan From Frankfurt

Zurich, Oct. 2.

A German passenger plane which left Frankfurt on Saturday at noon for Milan has failed to reach its destination, according to a report here on Saturday evening. The plane carried a crew of three and ten passengers.

It is believed that adverse weather conditions compelled the plane to effect an emergency landing in the region of Graubunden or Tessin. A search for the missing plane was begun at once.—Transocean.

Reuter reports that the weather is stormy with snow and the plane, if it crashed in the Alps, may be covered and difficult to locate.

The noise of the plane's engines was clearly heard in several places by the German inhabitants of the Grison's Canton.

SEARCH MADE FOR MAIL PLANE

Berlin, Oct. 2.

The German mail plane "Pampero D. Arco," of the South Atlantic mail service, which was due to arrive at Bathurst from Natal on Saturday afternoon failed to reach its destination, according to a report received here on Saturday evening. The missing plane, which carried a crew of five, sent out her last radio message reporting her position at 4:38 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

The message reported that the plane was approaching Bathurst and that the lights of a ship stationed outside the harbour could already be distinctly seen. Since that time nothing was heard of the plane and several planes of the Luftwaffe and Air France, as well as several ships, are engaged in a search for the missing German plane.—Transocean.

Japanese Attempt To Encircle Chinese On South Bank Of Yangtze Suffers Reverse

Hankow, October 2.

The Japanese attempt to encircle the Chinese right wing on the south bank of the Yangtze River received a reverse when crack Chinese divisions launched a series of vigorous attacks in the vicinity of Wuning, it is reported here.

The Japanese want to advance along the highways along Wuning and Tungshan to cut the Peiping-Hankow Railway near Hsienning, to the south of Hankow, it is understood, but Chinese forces, which participated in the Nankow Pass and Talerchwang battles, stand in their way.

Another Chinese column from Tehan, on the Kiuikiang-Nanchang Railway, advanced to the north-west to attack the flank of the Japanese forces to the east of Wuning, according to Chinese military dispatches from the latter city.

The Chinese claim that after two days of severe fighting in which six detachments participated, the invaders lost over 2,000 men, the 3rd and the 123rd detachments; being wiped out.

According to dispatches from the front the Japanese are attempting to build a pontoon bridge across the Fu River but Chinese artillery are concentrating fire on the river to prevent the Japanese from crossing.

Under cover of heavy naval bombardments Japanese troops in motorboats attempted to land on the south bank of the Yangtze River above Matoucheng but were repulsed by Chinese artillery which sank two boats, it is claimed in a Chinese communique.—Reuter.

SWIMMING STAR AND SOCIAL STANDING

Mak Wai-ming Gets 9 Months For Systematic Thefts NEARLY $10,000 INVOLVED

A crowd that included many of the defendant's fellow sportsmen and friends, jammed every available inch of the first court at Central Magistracy on Saturday when Mak Wai-ming, well-known local Chinese swimming star, was sentenced to nine months' hard labour by Mr. H. R. Butters on pleading guilty to seven separate charges of larceny from swimming beaches of jewellery and money to the total value of $9,540.

It was revealed by Detective-Inspector L. R. Whant, in the course of his outline of the case that all except one of the larcenies had been committed over the week-end, when defendant, taking advantage of the popularity he enjoyed in his role of aquatic champion, had stolen from people who had offered him the hospitality of their sheds or tents or cubicles at the Lido, Repulse Bay, and at Shek-O.

Of the property stolen $7,870 valuable watches, cameras, and sums of money. In one case, a ball was found in a tent which had been ransacked, the theory being that the ball had been thrown in and the tent entered with the pretext of taking it out.

Complainants included Messrs. I. M. Baxter, T. S. Cheung, H. Sperling, C. Renner, Miss Y. Lee and four Fathers of the Maryknoll Order.

Most of the property recovered had been found in a safe deposit box at the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, and some in defendant's house. He had given the police every assistance since his arrest.

Mak, Inspector Whant concluded, was employed as a temporary counter-clerk, at the Post Office at a monthly wage of $35. In passing sentence, His Worship remarked that he was taking into consideration the fact that defendant had helped the police. He had admitted a series of systematic thefts, and would have to go to prison with hard labour for nine months.

SOCIAL STANDING
Mak admitted each charge in a steady voice, maintaining his composure throughout and, from the third to the seventh time he pleaded "guilty" there was a distinct murmur and stir in the public seats. He offered neither excuse nor extenuation to the Magistrate but Inspector Whant informed the court that he (defendant) had told him that he had stolen so that he could keep up the social standing which his position as a leading sportsman entailed.

Mak, Inspector Whant revealed, had been arrested as the result of the taking to Messrs. Schmidt and Co. for repairs of a camera by a man named Leung. This camera, which belonged to a University undergraduate, had been stolen from Repulse Bay on May 23, and, in the interval pending the repairs, the owner reported its loss and when Leung came back for it he was arrested. He thereupon implicated Mak, and the whole series of thefts, which had begun in October last year, came to light.

CRUELTY TO A BOY
Police found a young boy, Tam Cho-yin, 12, in a state of exhaustion and bruised in many parts of the body, when they entered an unnumbered hut in Shek Kip Mei Village, Cheungshawan on Saturday afternoon.

The boy was on the verge of collapse due to starvation and his hands and feet were bound with wire which had cut deep into his flesh.

As a result, a 36-year-old Chinese widow, Chan Shi and a man, Lau To 37, who are the occupants of the hut, have been detained.

It is alleged that the boy, who had been sent out to pick up cigarette ends, from the streets, brought home an insufficient quantity and as a form of punishment, they bound him as stated and gave him no food for three days. The widow taken into custody is the foster mother.

It is understood that on Monday, charges will be preferred against the two in the Kowloon Police Court.

CONSTABLE ON GRAVE CHARGE

Allegations By Woman

A Chinese constable, named Kong Shing, 29, stationed at the Water Police Station, appeared before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Court on Saturday on a charge of misconduct on September 29.

Kong was alleged to have taken gratuity of three dollars and two chickens from a woman, Leung Choi, at the Kowloon-Canton Railway Station.

Mr. R. H. E. Marks, Assistant Superintendent of Kowloon, appeared for the police.

Leung Choi, in the witness box said that she arrived by the evening express from Canton with her daughter, who was carrying a rattan basket and a small basket. On leaving the platform, her daughter was walking ahead of her, and she could see a policeman searching the baskets her daughter was carrying. She joined her daughter later and she heard the constable, whom she recognised as defendant, telling her daughter that tying up the chicken's legs was against the law and that he would take her back to the station. Witness said she pleaded for a chance, but the constable insisted on arresting the girl and threatened to fine $20 for the offence.

Leung informed defendant that she did not have the money on her and asked defendant to keep the two chickens and let the matter be settled. She offered also the sum of one dollar to go with the two chickens. It was alleged, however, that defendant demanded $5.

"I took my purse out, containing three dollars," said witness, "and defendant asked me to give it to him. He asked me to give it to a cooler."

Leung went on to say that she eventually gave the $3 to the cooler, who acted as mediator.

After giving all the money to the cooler, witness said she had no money for travelling expenses, and asked defendant for the return of one dollar which he refused.

NOT ENOUGH MONEY
Witness then said that as she had insufficient money to go home, she sent her daughter back on rickshaw and she herself walked home. On her way she discussed the incident with a friend and was advised to report the matter to the police.

This she did, and while at the Water Police Station, making the report, she saw defendant coming back with other constables.

On the following day a woman, described as defendant's wife, came to visit her and requested her not to press the case, and offered the return of the two chickens and the sum of $3. She would not accept the terms.

At this stage the case was adjourned provisionally till October 4, when Mr. C. A. E. Russ will appear to conduct the defence. Bail was allowed in the sum of $200.

NEW FOOD REGULATIONS

Among the important additions to the Adulterated Food and Drug Ordinance gazetted on Saturday, is the following regulation to be numbered 4A) added after Regulation 4, and dealing with milk:

"Every tin or other receptacle containing dried partly skimmed milk sold or exposed for sale for consumption in the Colony shall bear a label; and on every such label and on the wrapper, if any, of every such tin or other receptacle there shall be printed in large and legible type in English and Chinese the words 'This is dried partly skimmed milk and children under one year of age should not be fed on it except under medical advice.'"

ROYAL AIR FORCE

CARE OF PARACHUTES

In future aircraft hands will be allowed on station establishments for the care, packing, and maintenance of parachutes, including the maintenance of the parachute store, on the basis of one qualified parachute packer for every 60 or part of 60 initial equipment parachutes held on charge.

In addition to this personnel allowed by establishment, each squadron, including advanced training squadrons, is to have on its strength at least one aircraft hand who has passed a course in the care and maintenance of parachutes.

It is intended that, in future training in parachute care and maintenance should be restricted to the trade of aircraft hand. This is to obviate part-time employment on parachute packing to the possible detriment of work in skilled trades and to ensure that skilled tradesmen in units are available at all times for their normal duties.

DR. KUNG APPRECIATES LEAGUE ACTION

Will America Fall In Line?

Chungking, October 1.
Appreciation of the League of Nations' adoption of Article 16 of its Covenant and the hope that member states will individually apply sanctions against Japan and extend more substantial aid to China were expressed by Dr. H. H. Kung, President of the Executive Yuan, and concurrently Minister of Finance, in an interview with the Central News yesterday.

Dr. Kung declared that the present resolution of the League surpasses in significance all its previous efforts to aid China since the Mukden Incident in September, 1931.

Whilst appreciating the League's resolution, the Chinese are more convinced that the progress and prosperity of mankind hinge upon international stability, which in turn depends upon due observance of international regulations.

This important resolution of the League shed a new light of justice at a moment when the world was threatened by another Great War. If such mighty efforts had been exerted earlier by the League, not only would Japan's aggression be curbed and the current war in China with all its horrors be averted, but also international complications would not have been so acute in the last few years, Dr. Kung opined.

Emphasizing that neither peace nor justice is divisible, Dr. Kung reiterated that China has been fighting for over a year not only for her own freedom and existence but also for world peace and justice.

Though the effectiveness of the League's resolution depends upon the application of the individual member states, Dr. Kung was confident that they will do their best to curb Japan and aid China. He also believed that the United States which has always been upholding peace and justice and is the promoter of the Nine-Power Treaty and the Kellogg Pact will be in line and take effective measures to put out the wildfire that is raging.

Concluding, Dr. Kung remarked that China will continue her resistance to the aggressor with all her might and mean, and will meantime negotiate with the friendly nations for assistance to herself and effective sanctions against Japan in accordance with the League's resolution.—Central News.

FRENCH FLEET WATCHING JAPANESE

(From Our Own Correspondent).

Canton, Oct. 1.
Two French cruisers and several destroyers, under the command of Vice-Admiral J. Le Bigot, have arrived near the Paracel Islands following their visit to Manila. A Chinese report stated that the French warships are there to observe the movements of a Japanese squadron in those waters.

It is reported that the Japanese bluejackets have abandoned Welchow Island, about 35 miles south of Pakhoi, although one destroyer is still anchored there.

No reason is given for the abandonment of Welchow Island, for it was stated previously that the Japanese wanted to develop a naval base there.

ASSISTANCE TO CHINA

Chengtu, Oct. 1.

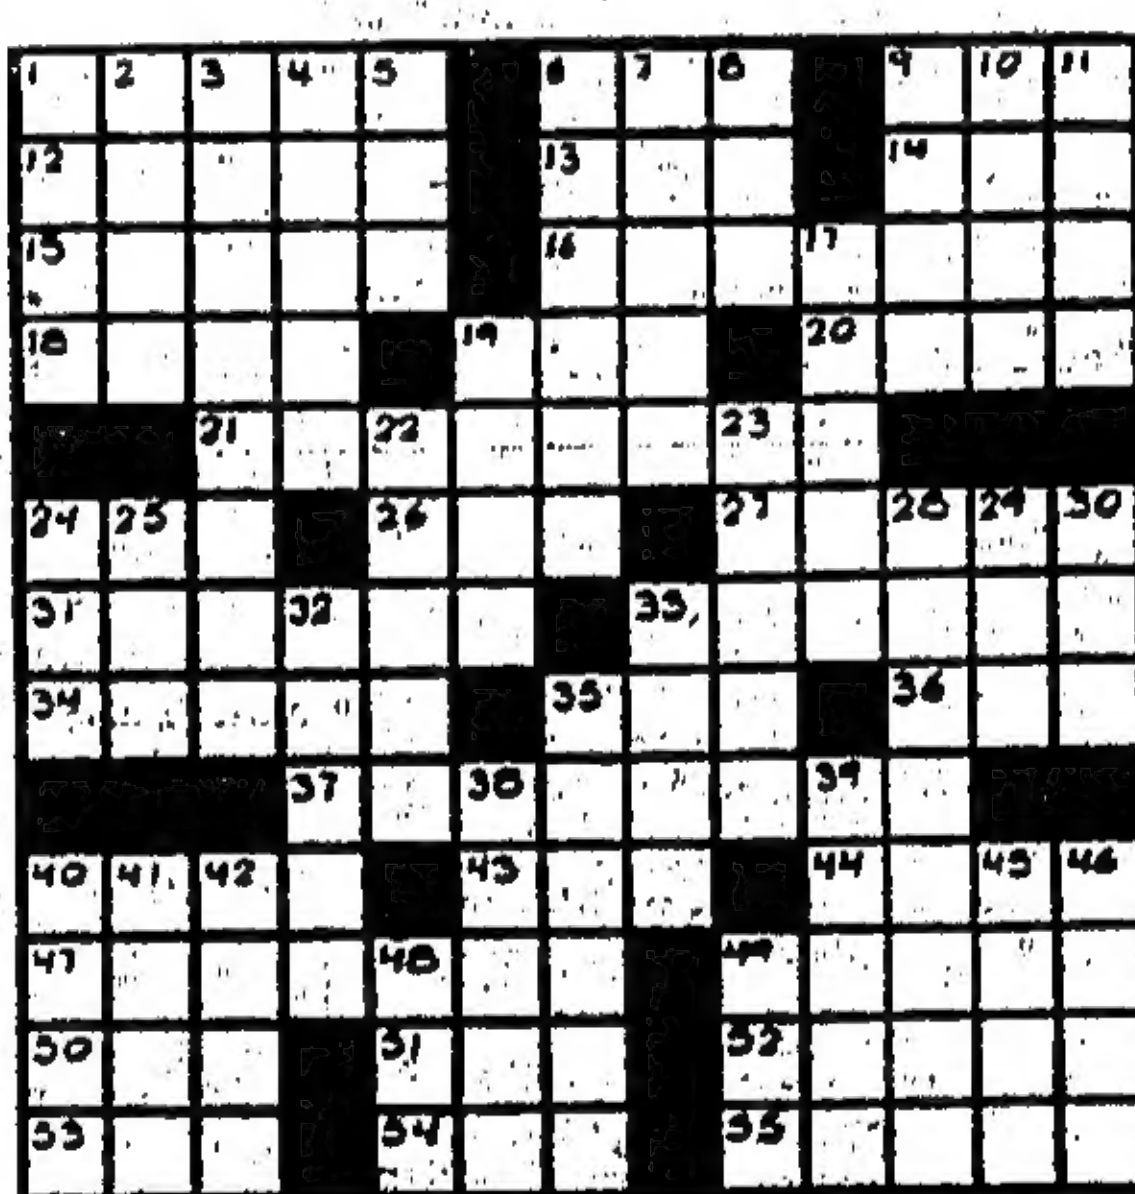

British, American and Canadian nationals at Chengtu have sent a cable to the League of Nations and also separate cables to their respective governments, urging international assistance to China.

The messages suggest that international loans or other forms of assistance be promptly extended to China in her heroic struggle against the aggressor.—Central News.

By Allegro Moderato
The broadcast by Ettore Pellegatti, the cellist, which took place ten days ago, was a delight. The Sonata by Debussy which was included in the programme was played over ZBW for the first time. The week just passed was rather full in the way of broadcasting. First of all, Signorina Notargiacomo, the well-known dramatic soprano, appeared in an impromptu programme. We noticed with not a little pleasure that she included "Tacea la notte," from the opera "Il Trovatore," an aria which requires both voice and technique, and to which the Signorina did full justice.

A young tenor, A. Guterres, sang with the St. Joseph's Church Choir for the first time last Sunday; and it must be said that he possesses a pleasing voice, with the dark qualities of either a high baritone or a dramatic tenor. The aria offered, "Invocation" by Nonato, was sung with a great deal of artistic feeling. We would urge the young singer to carry on his training seriously and, are sure that he will be adequately compensated for his pains.

In other musical offerings from ZBW during the week, mention must be made of the broadcast by Albert E. Barton, baritone, on Thursday, Gaston d'Aquin, tenor, on Monday, and Doreen Ma. All three programmes were excellent.

We are always in favour of operatic music during lunch hours

MR. NEVILLE CHAMBERLAIN HOME AGAIN

GREAT WELCOME AT AERODROME

London, Oct. 2.
The British Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, arrived at the Heston aerodrome here yesterday afternoon at 5.40 o'clock. The first person to greet him was Court Marshal Lord Chandon who brought a message from the King. Then the members of the Cabinet headed by Lord Halifax approached the plane as Mr. Chamberlain moved towards the waiting company. He was obviously in excellent spirits and waved his hat in recognition of the enthusiastic ovations from the crowd which had gathered at the aerodrome.

Among the large group of distinguished personages present to congratulate Mr. Chamberlain were the Italian Ambassador Count Grandi and his wife, the French Ambassador, Mr. Charles Corbin. The German Charge d'Affaires, Dr. Korth and 200 pupils from Eton.

Impressed by the rousing welcome he received, Mr. Chamberlain responded to the cries by declaring: "I will say only two things. During this period of anxiety my wife and I have received countless letters full of support and encouragement. I cannot tell you how helpful they were to me and I therefore thank the English people for all they have done. I should further like to say that the regulation of the Czechoslovak question which has just been achieved is in my opinion only a prelude to a larger adjustment through which entire Europe will find peace."

"We thank you," shouted the crowd in reply. Mr. Chamberlain concluded his remarks by advising the crowd to return home and to live again in peace and security.—Transocean.

DALADIER RETURNS

Paris, Oct. 1.
After arriving at Le Bourget aerodrome from Munich at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the Premier Daladier broadcast a short speech, that ran as follows: "I return from the Munich negotiations with the firm conviction that the agreements reached at Munich were indispensable for the maintenance of peace. It has now been saved. I feel that once this dangerous cliff having been passed, a general settlement of the Great European problems can be envisaged."—Transocean.

WELCOMED BY KING

Florence, Oct. 1.
Signor Mussolini, returning from Munich, was welcomed on his arrival at Florence by the King personally who congratulated him on the complete success of his conversations with the English, German, and French Governments. Huge crowds which had gathered inside and outside the station gave a rousing ovation when the King greeted the Duce whose special train pulled into Florence's railway station at about 3.30 p.m. All along the route from Verona to Florence large crowds had gathered to welcome the Duce. At Rome where innumerable flags have been hoisted, a magnificent reception has been prepared to demonstrate the joy and gratitude felt by the Italian people at the complete success of the Duce's mission.—Transocean.

THE FIRST SESSION

Berlin, Oct. 1.
The International Committee entrusted with the details of the Munich agreement met for the first time yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Assembly Council room of the German Foreign Office. The Czech member, the Minister in Berlin, Mastny, was not present as he had not yet arrived from Prague. It is reported in well-informed circles that Mastny will be accompanied to Berlin by the Czech Minister Kinzel-Jefsky, Colonel Janacek from the Czechoslovak General Staff, Colonel Jirka and Major Bartoschek. Those present at the Friday conference were the Secretary of State in the German Foreign Office, Freiherr von Welzuecker, the British Ambassador in Berlin, Sir Neville Henderson, the French Ambassador Francois-Poncet and the Italian Ambassador Attolico.—Transocean.

ADMIRALTY CHIEF SENDS IN RESIGNATION

Differences Of Opinion Over Foreign Policy

London, October 2.
The British First Lord of the Admiralty, Mr. Alfred Duff Cooper, resigned from his office on Saturday afternoon. His reasons for leaving the Government are set down in a letter which he sent to the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, on Saturday.

"My dear Prime Minister," he wrote. "I regret deeply that at the moment of your great triumph, I am compelled to strike a discordant note."

"For reasons with which you are familiar, and which I have also stated in the House, I have come to the conclusion that I cannot have confidence in the foreign policy pursued and probably to be pursued in future by the present Government. I do this with the deepest regret because I have been proud to direct my Ministry, which is one that I prefer to all others."

"I am very grateful to you for having so much confidence in me and for having shown me unchanging friendship and patience. Having these feelings, I have decided for reasons of honour and loyalty to submit my resignation." In accepting the resignation, Mr. Chamberlain replied:—

PREMIER'S REPLY

"I have received the letter in which you announce your resignation as a Minister in my Government and am very sorry you have come to this decision. Since I know that you are convinced that the foreign policy of the Government is wrong, I can do nothing other than grant your wish as I believe it would not be right for you to remain longer in the Government. Before I present your request to the King for approval, I should like to thank you for your work in the important Ministry which you are now relinquishing, and to express the hope that differences of opinion which have arisen over policy will not affect our personal relations."

BIG SURPRISE

The resignation of the First Lord came as a surprise to the British public although it was known that during the past weeks of crisis differences of opinion had arisen in the Cabinet.

Mr. Duff Cooper is the second member of the Chamberlain Government to resign because of foreign policy, the first having been the former Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, who left the Government on February 20, because of disagreement concerning Italian policy.

"Dissension between Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Duff Cooper was no secret in political circles" although it was not realized that the latter's resignation would follow so closely upon the heels of the signal victory won by the Government policy.—Transocean.

BRITISH TROOPS FOR DUTY

London, Oct. 2.
Four battalions of English Guards have received orders to depart for Czechoslovakia on Saturday. They will perform occupation duty in the districts in which plebiscites are to be held. Among the troops being sent to Central Europe are the 2nd Battalion, Coldstream Guards in Aldershot and the 2nd Battalion, Highlanders, in Edinburgh.—Transocean.

PRAGUE WANTS PLEBISCITE

Prague, Oct. 2.
Contrary to the Czech-Polish agreement regarding the cession of Teschen and surrounding territory to Poland, it was announced here, on Saturday night, that the Prague Government is not inclined to cede territory to Hungary without a plebiscite.

It is emphasized in political circles that in the case of a Hungarian minority a plebiscite must be held before the cession comes into question. In explanation of this apparent discrimination, it is stated that not an inconsiderable part of the Hungarian Minority, because of long cultural relations with the Slovaks, have no desire to return to Hungary.—Transocean.

HENLEIN'S TELEGRAM TO HITLER

Bayreuth, Oct. 1.
The leader of the Sudeten German Party Konrad Henlein addressed the following telegram to the Fuehrer: "My Fuehrer. On behalf of the Sudeten German people, I thank you, my Fuehrer from the depth of my heart for the liberty you won for us. Our children and children's children will still bless the day when through the Anschluss to the Great German Reich the distress of millions was turned by you into deep joy and proud confidence. More words are insufficient for the expression of our sentiments towards you at this moment. The Sudeten German people will stand as one man in deep loyalty behind their liberator."—Transocean.

PRAGUE'S PROCLAMATION

Prague, Oct. 1.
The Prague Czechoslovak Government at 8 p.m. yesterday broadcast to the Sudeten Germans announcing to the latter the cession of the Sudetenland to the Reich. The proclamation declares: "Sudeten Germans. The control in the regions to be ceded will be transferred by the Czechoslovak authorities directly to the German authorities. As long as this is not done, Czechoslovak sovereignty and Czechoslovak law continues in these regions. The Czech people made a great sacrifice. It relinquished property which was in its possession for 1000 years, because it wished to avoid war that would spread over to you, your women, your children and your homeland. This imposes upon the duty to respect the great spirit of self sacrifice on part of the Czech people. Our army will do its duty and cooperate in the execution of the necessary formalities. Don't make the fulfilment of this duty too difficult, as far as this concerns you."—Transocean.

VOLUNTEER OFFICER MARRIED

MARTIN-ROBERTSON

A wedding of much interest in social and Volunteer circles took place at St. John's Cathedral on Saturday afternoon when Miss Lillian Constance Seal Robertson became the bride of Mr. Thomas Addis Martin, Manager of Messrs. Calbeck, Macgregor and Company, Ltd.

The Dean of the Cathedral, Very Rev. J. L. Wilson, and the Rev. K. Mackenzie Dow, of the Hongkong Union Church, officiated at the ceremony.

The bridegroom is the younger son of the Very Rev. Alex Martin, D.D., LL.D., K.H.C., Principal-Emertus of Mew College, Edinburgh, and Mrs. Martin, while the bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Robertson, of Windsor, and grand-daughter of the late Rev. John Robertson LL.D. of Upton Park Slough.

Entering the Cathedral on the arm of Mr. J. F. Macgregor, by whom she was given away, the bride looked charming in a dress of cream chintilly lace with short train and tulle veil, with orange blossom wreath.

She wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom's parents, and an evening dress with white watch, a present from the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of pink gladioli and white heather.

FOUR ATTENDANTS

The bride was attended by the little Misses Mary Adamson, Susan Owen-Hughes, Faith McClatchie and Gillian Johnstone, who wore dresses in shades of pink, blue, yellow and green spigged organza with wreaths of mixed flowers. They carried Victorian posies of garden flowers.

Mrs. A. S. Adamson, who was Matron of Honour, wore a neat creation of cinnamon crepe with black accessories.

The duties of best man were discharged by Mr. J. A. D. Morrison.

Following the ceremony, a largely attended reception was held at the Headquarters of the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps. The bridegroom, who is a Captain in the Corps, is the popular Commanding Officer of the Corps 1st Battery.

The happy couple later left for their honeymoon at Shek-O, Mrs. Addis Martin's going-away costume being a powder blue and navy ensemble with accessories to match.

WELL-KNOWN CHINESE COUPLE MARRIED

The wedding of Miss Li Wai-ting, daughter of Mr. Li Koon-chun, J.P., well-known Chinese merchant, and Dr. Jose Chan Yan-doo, son of a leading Philippines businessman, took place on Saturday at the Registry, Supreme Court.

Later, a reception, was held in the Grill Room of the Hongkong Hotel, where the bride and groom received the felicitations of the 400 guests present.

The honeymoon is being spent in Manila, the newlyweds leaving in the evening by the s.s. Conle Verde.

ANOTHER WEDDING

Another wedding solemnised at the Registry on Saturday was that between Mr. Chan Kam-hong, of No. 17 Connaught Road Central, and Miss Pang Sui-ha, of No. 4 Ching Lin Terrace, Kennedy Town.

TWO REGISTRY WEDDINGS

Mr. W. A. Jones, Deputy Registrar, officiated at two weddings at The Registry on Saturday.

The first was between Dr. Jose Chan Yan Doo, of No. 141, Lai-chi-kok Road, Kowloon, and Miss Li Wai-ting, of No. 8, Kennedy Road, Hongkong, and the second between Mr. Chan Kam-hong, clerk, of No. 14, Connaught Road Central, and Miss Pang Sui-ha, of No. 4, Ching Lin Terrace, Kennedy Town.

GAY FASHIONS AT POPULAR WEDDING

(BY ROZANNE)

In a beautifully decorated church, with the orange and pink gladioli and orange and yellow gerbera quite in tune with the autumnal air, I watched the wedding of Mr. T. Addis Martin and his bride just out from home and afterwards proceeded to Volunteer Headquarters where we imbibed champagne, and where I started to look about me to see the pretties.

It was obvious that many had realised that autumn was supposed to be here and there were quite a number of felt hats and warmer frocks.

DARK BROWNS

Mrs. Weldon, in chocolate brown heavy crepe, had a matching half-beret, half-pill-box, felt perky on her head. Standing near her was Miss Anne Dodwell, who still felt summery and was in neat white, with a contrasting red straw. Also in dark brown was Mrs. Hedgecoe, the main feature of her frock being a twisted tie-belt originating in the bodice and running through gold-bound slots.

Mrs. J. P. Witham, in sage green with an upward tilting brim to her hatting was chatting to Mrs. Don Evans, who looked very chic in black with a large picture hat. Everyone in that corner was even more hilarious than we were at the excellent speech made by Mr. Jack Macgregor, which was real laugh-raising one.

FUTURIST

Mrs. Rose, wife of the Commandant of the Corps, was in rainbow striped crepe. I saw her choosing dainties from the buffet with Mrs. Mitchell and daughter Jean. Both the latter were in black, and Miss Mitchell had the most unusual futuristic colour design on her gown.

Mrs. Tim Flannagan, in green with a black pattern, sported the most seductive head covering, obviously one of the new felt models. Mrs. Fotts, however, stuck to straw and her black hat had the air of one of Gainsborough's ladies, with its tightly furled brim hat and little bows.

Mrs. Dodwell had flowing chiffon over a black taffeta slip. Mrs. Edmondston, one of those who signed the register, also chose black, and her star-shaped flower pattern had bright emerald green centres. Mrs. Hancock, who must have been thinking of her daughter's recent wedding, looked cooler than I felt in white, with a large brimmed hat.

MORE LOVELY DRESSES

Mrs. Owen Hughes, Sr., had a pattern of sweet peas on her black nylon gown, and watched her granddaughter, one of the little bridesmaids, with mingled pride and amusement. Mrs. (Major) Johnson, and Mrs. McClatchie, whose children were also bridal attendants, were in leafy green and black and white respectively.

Mrs. Shorty Helbart, like myself, had chosen navy, and her pink lace blouse top and veiled hat looked enchanting. Mrs. Stout, who was in sea green, had a sweet cherry knome hatlet, which matched beautifully with Mrs. Alabaster's royal purple gown as I saw them pass together.

I was so pleased to see Mrs. Guinness up and about again and looking well in black with a large white circle pattern. Also in black and white were Mrs. Mackenzie Kennedy and Mrs. White.

CHARITY BALL

Featuring a mannequin parade, the Charity Ball to be held at the Hongkong Hotel on October 7 is expected to be one of the most brilliant events of the season. Funds raised at this function will be devoted to war relief.

Chinese boy scouts of the Franco-Chinese College in Shanghai were last week presented with certificates for their valuable work during the anti-cholera campaign by M. F. Auge, Acting Consul-General for France.

Mrs. W. R. L. Best and her grandson, Mr. Edgar L. Best, Jr., of Redwood City, California, who are on a tour of the Far East are expected in Hongkong this week.

Mr. G. H. Rendall, formerly of the Public Works Department in Shanghai, and Mrs. Rendall have settled near Alton in Hampshire. Their son John is studying at the Royal School of Mines, South Kensington.

His Excellency the Governor and Lady Northcote will give a dance at Government House on Friday, October 28, from 9.30 p.m. to 1 p.m.

TEA-DANCE SEASON RE-OPENS BEAUTIFUL FROCKS

By Rosette

June and Collett, in versatile and varied entertainment, Art Carmelro and his Band rendering sweet music, and a crowd of over 300 people, bent on enjoying themselves (and aided in that worthy endeavour by the intermittent drizzle that fell outside) combined to make the re-opening of the Hongkong Hotel tea-dance season yesterday an unqualified success.

Tables were booked early, and there was hardly any space for the enthusiastic crowd, which comprised a truly cosmopolitan gathering, including Chinese officials, aviators, business men, undergraduates of the Hongkong University, college students and leading members of Hongkong society.

In spite of the fact that three-quarter length Chinese dresses appear to be in fashion, most of the ladies present obviously realised that long gowns are more becoming for the dance-floor, and all varieties of these beautiful frocks were on view, contributing to the general gaiety of the atmosphere.

The party which included Professor K. H. Digby, of Hongkong University, was most prominent; others at that table being Mr. and Mrs. Pestonji, Mrs. Kharegat, Mrs. Linell Yee and Miss Daisy O'Keefe.

SEA-GREEN SARI

Mrs. Kharegat looked most entrancing in a delicate sea-green sari, trimmed in black and silver designs. Mr. and Mrs. Pestonji quite clearly enjoyed their dance together to the strains of the delightful Poema tango.

Miss Jessie Cheng, the aviatrix from Paris, was gowned in a dazzling black crepe with floral designs, with a green jade bangle and an enamel watch of the same hue on either wrist. She was in the company of her cousin Perry, Mr. Stanley Shum and Mr. Raymond Chan, popular figures of Shanghai society.

Miss Kwok Tin-yau was escorted by Mr. Ho Hung-chiu, both being undergraduates at the University. Miss Kwok wore a white dress trimmed with green and a bolero of the same shade to match. They were too interested in the crowd and the floor entertainment to dance themselves.

GLORIA YEE

The outstanding dancers on the floor were the members of the Yee family. Mrs. William Yee glided most gracefully in the arms of her husband, while Miss Gloria Yee, star pupil of Miss O'Keefe, danced an uncommonly fast fox-trot with her brother Jimmy, and the faultless movements of her feet evoked much admiration.

The first number by June and Collett was a waltz in which the former's sweeping skirt of white satin attracted much attention. In their second offering they gave a wonderful interpretation of the different styles of dancing taken from all parts of the world. They mimicked, especially well, the Army Colonel and the American tourist and ended up with "the most popular dance in Europe at present" amidst the thunderous applause of the audience.

CZECH'S AGONY

IS EVERYTHING SETTLED IN EUROPE? For the time being, it may safely be said that all threats of another conflict have been removed and, in this connection, a special word of praise must be given to the British Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, for it was due mainly to his unselfish and untiring efforts that war, which threatened to engulf the whole of Europe, and indeed possibly the world, has been stayed off. The British people are, therefore, proud of their Prime Minister just as the other nations have, during these last two weeks, learned to respect him as a highly-skilled and tactful statesman.

But to return to the question of settled conditions in Europe, one is somewhat sceptical about a final settlement having in fact been accomplished.

WHAT CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S feelings are about the whole situation can well be imagined and, without wishing to add fuel to a fire that is already smouldering bitterly enough, one can readily understand those feelings.

Newspapers in the Colony yesterday that Dr. Edouard Benes, President of the Czechoslovak Republic, would, in the course of a day or so, hand in his resignation. Efforts are being made to persuade him to reconsider his decision—for the time being, at least, but it is feared that this will be of no avail.

The Germans now refer to Czechoslovakia in friendly terms and have even gone to the extent of offering advice to the effect that "Prague will do well to remember the mistakes of the past which may well become the starting point for a wholesome and profitable future for Czechoslovakia and the Czechoslovakian people."

Whatever that may mean, the fact remains that the Czechs must feel that they have had a "raw deal" and, because of this, relations between Germany and Czechoslovakia, though perhaps improved, may never reach that stage of perfect trust and understanding.

NOW THAT GERMANY has come out "top dog" in the crisis, Poland is greedy to feather her nest in the shape of concessions to Poland, including the Czech part of the town of Teschen. The Czechs had no alternative but to surrender under protest, to this new threat, but it is all savours of indigestion. Hungary is also striving for more but the Prague Government has intimated

FALSEHOODS—MADE IN JAPAN

HONGKONG, OCTOBER 2nd, 1938.

IT HAS LONG SINCE been an acknowledged fact that, as a race, the Japanese are not what they have always claimed to be—civilized—but the longer the hostilities are permitted to drag on, the more we are convinced of this. They are deceitful because they always say one thing and then do another; obstinate because, even now, after fourteen months of futile efforts, they still think they can "beat China to her knees"; stupid because they cannot see that they are being led like a flock of sheep by the military elements, and barbarous because they specialise in attacking defenceless cities and towns and murdering en masse innocent civilians particularly women and children.

One would have thought that, by now, the Japanese, thick-skulled though they admittedly are, would have appreciated the fact that their China campaign must be doomed to failure, but each day dawns with more statements and threats, from Tokyo and the innumerable Japanese propagandists spread all over the world, regarding the crushing of China and better things to come for those who have actively, or in any other way, helped Japan in her attacks on China.

IT IS BECOMING INCREASINGLY APPARENT, however, that these propagandists of Japan have lost some of the enthusiasm that was the feature of their work in the early days of the war—work that is still being continued, namely, that of flooding the world with a continuous flow of unadulterated untruths. Perhaps it is because these propagandists are beginning to realise that all their work has been so much labour lost, because the world can and does see through their every move. On the other hand, it is perhaps because members of this national propaganda department of Japan are finding their work not so remunerative as it was in the early days of the war, no doubt due to the great shortage of cash in Japan and the consequent inability of the Government to issue any more fiat pay cheques. Whatever the reason, the fact remains that there has been a slackening in the efforts of Japan's mighty men of the pen, or as they may be very aptly described, the "manufacturers of falsehoods" (Made in Japan!).

WHILE ON THE SUBJECT of propaganda work in and out of Japan, it is learned on good authority that the Government of Japan still exercises the greatest control over the publication of news of the war. For instance, we often hear of the "annihilation" of a whole Chinese Division with only a few casualties on the Japanese side, but reports from entirely neutral sources more often than not give the lie to these Japanese bulletins.

The casualties suffered by the invading Japanese army number tens of thousands. How and from where will the necessary replacements be found? The youth left in the country do not want to join up—they clearly do not want a war—and the thousands of journalists and propagandists are firm believers in the old adage about discretion being the better part of valour, and prefer to let their compatriots think that they are an integral part of the Japanese war machine—that, without the pen, the sword would be useless. To be candid, however, they are too cowardly even to volunteer for ordinary police work in their own country, let alone run the risk of coming face to face with a Chinese soldier!

THE SITUATION, IN A NUTSHELL, therefore, is this. Japan is financially paralysed and no money can be found to continue with the war for much longer. Man power has been taxed to the limit and confidence amongst the civilians is so rapidly diminishing that the outlook is distinctly very black. The resignation of General Ugaki as Foreign Minister suggests that there is more in the internal affairs of Japan than meets the eye. However, time will tell. Meanwhile that choice example of a Japanese diplomat, Prince Konoye, the Prime Minister, has also taken over the Foreign Ministry. They are on the look-out for a Foreign Minister who will do as he is told—in other words be a mere figure head. But it is extremely doubtful as to whether they will be able to find anybody to take over the reins of office. What is the use, they ask, to be given a job and in almost the same breath be told that the militarists must have the last word, come what may?

3 NEW SHIPS FOR N.Y.K.

Named After Shrines

The three new ships of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha for the Europe service will be named Nitta Maru, Yawata Maru and Kasuga Maru. Nitta Maru, from which shrine this vessel takes her name is located on top of a mountain called Kanayama, in Otamati, a small town to the north-west of Tokyo. The dedication of this shrine is placed between 1301 and 1338. Yawata Maru receives her name from her predecessor of 3,501 tons, which was built in 1898 and scrapped in 1934. The shrine associated with the naming of this ship is the Iwasimizu Hachimangu at Yawata-mati, and was established in 860 A. D. and dedicated to Emperor Czin. Kasuga Maru also has a predecessor of 3,497 tons, built in 1898 and scrapped in 1935. This vessel takes her name from the Kasuga Shrine at the foot of Mt. Kasuga in Nara, and it is visited by nearly all tourists to Japan.

The three new ships' names begin with N. Y. and K. which is quite symbolic.

Its unwillingness to cede any territory to the Hungarians without a plebiscite. For if all these demands are met, what would be left of Czechoslovakia after almost every nation in Europe has had its share in the booty?

Now that their European claims have been satisfied, what will be the next move of the Nazis? The chances are that they will revive the colonies question if they have not already done so satisfied in the thought, perhaps, that if they can get their own way in Europe, they will probably be able also to dictate terms elsewhere.

Meanwhile, the peace of Europe is more or less guaranteed, but the future for the Czechs does not appear to be any too rosy. They will be a people nursing a feeling of strong resentment and a deep grievance against their oppressors and their lot, at the best, will not be an enviable one.

PORTUGUESE REPUBLIC

Celebration On Wednesday

On Wednesday, October 5, Portugal and her colonies will celebrate the 28th anniversary of the foundation of the Republic in 1910 which marked the initiation of a new and brilliant era for her peoples. This was the ninth period of her history since she emerged from an obscure border state in the Kingdom of Leon into an independent State in the eleventh century. In her Hall of Fame are inscribed the names of those men who, by their patriotism and determination to further the territorial expansions of the motherland, adventured into unknown lands and over strange seas. Portugal, whose tradition is on the seas, played a great part in the cause of maritime exploration since it was pioneered by Prince Henry the Navigator. This period of discovery was the most illustrious and picturesque chapter in her history, beginning early in the fifteenth century and extending for some 85 years.

MODERN HISTORY

The modern history of the country began 28 years ago with the proclamation of the Republic on October 5, 1910, after a short revolution, when a provisional government was established with Dr. Theophilo Braga as the Provisional President. Following him there were eight duly elected presidents and on March 19, 1933, the Estado Novo Constitution was adopted, this Constitution providing for a President to be elected for seven years.

The present President, General Antonio Oscar de Fragoso Carmona, began his career as the country's ruler on November 29, 1926, and has since been twice re-elected to the position. The present Cabinet, under Professor Antonio de Oliveira Salazar, has perhaps achieved more for the country than any other past regime through the genius of its leader who, as Prime Minister and Minister of Finance, had almost an equal share with General Carmona

CORRESPONDENCE

CHINESE WOMEN QUARREL

(To the Editor, "The Hong Kong Daily Press")

Sir:—It is sincerely to be regretted that friction has broken out in the ranks of the Hongkong Chinese Women's Soldier's Relief Association, an organization which has been doing some very excellent work during the past fourteen months for those requiring medical and surgical attention.

On Saturday last, an announcement was made that a number of members of the association had tendered their resignations and, later, the names of those who had left the association were made public. Some of the ladies whose names appeared in the list subsequently denied that they had resigned.

Very regrettable was the fact that a few members of the Association's Advisory Board should have tendered their resignations without making a full investigation into the dispute and doing their utmost to mediate for a settlement, as it is felt on all sides that something could surely have been done to pour oil on the boiling waters instead of allowing dirty linen to be washed in public.

It is not a healthy sign to notice that when China's brave boys at the front are sacrificing their lives by the hundreds and suffering all kinds of untold agonies, their sisters here in Hongkong should be at variance over what apparently is a misunderstanding. The unfortunate part of the story is that both parties to the dispute are out to serve their country and their fellow-men. They have set for themselves a humane mission and they have acquired themselves wonderfully in the past, or at least until this unfortunate incident occurred. Neither has anything to gain.

Everybody is well aware of the good work done both by the various committees and the membership at large. As we recall the days when the Chinese woman refrained from taking part in affairs outside her own home, we cannot help thinking how things have changed and the noble and vital work which the members of the Hongkong Chinese Women's Soldier's Relief Association undertook voluntarily. They have won all round admiration and approbation and it would be a pity to see their work brought to naught simply on account of minor misunderstandings.

Surely the obstacle can be removed, as we sincerely hope it will be. For the sake of the wounded, we appeal to the Chinese women of Hongkong to lay aside their differences and unite for it is only by unity that their work will meet with success. An excellent record has been established. Are they going to allow the noble work to be broken down or are they going to allow a stain to remain? No matter who may be in the right and no matter who may be in the wrong we appeal to all to set aside their differences and work for the country which one and all of them love so dearly. Will they listen to this appeal?

Meanwhile, irrespective of the formation of a new association by those who have tendered their resignations, the work of the Association must go on: there must be no stoppage of the machinery. Yours respectfully, toward shaping the destiny of present-day Portugal.

INTERESTED.
Hongkong, Sept. 29, 1938.

BIRTHPLACE OF SALAZAR
Salazar's birthplace is Santa Comba Dao, a small town in the province of Beira. He read up his preliminaries at the local school and after a few years, matriculated himself in the Faculty of Laws of the University of Coimbra. He soon became a very distinguished student and having taken with honours a degree, was thereto appointed Professor of Financial Law in that Faculty.

The efforts of the leaders of the Republic in recent history show a concentration upon the development of the resources of the country and her colonies. Salazar's political strife for a better reconstruction of the social and economic system in Portugal is being satisfactorily fought out, and in trying to improve the material and moral conditions of his countrymen, he makes them look forward with full confidence into the future welfare of the whole country.

It is significant that Portugal, almost alone among the nations of the world, has had a balanced

Hello & Goodbye

—BY A.W. HYER—

War threats and scares have sent people pell mell to steamship offices for reservations to homelands. There were also quite a few cancellations, people deciding to hug the home-fires and not wander afield.

The commencement of the winter social season lends little thought to travel. Males and females should more or less remain still for the next couple of months. But some of us just can't get rid of those "itching feet" and away we go.

Hongkong receives a good share of such visitors who, can't stand the winter at home.

EMPERESS OF ASIA
Slipped her ropes and down the bay headed for Shanghai and Vancouver she quietly sailed. (By the way, the two smaller Canadian Pacific boats will be sailing in the early hours, while the bigger ones take out at noon).

Bound for Shanghai and a business call was Mr. A. Drummond who gave us a sleepy hello as we found him about to turn in for the night before sailing.

A knocking on the cabin door brought forth a sleepy who's there? and we found Master Wilson on his way to the land of dreams. The other members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson must have been ashore. Sorry to have missed you, hope the journey to British Columbia is good.

Several other passengers down on our list were not aboard and we dared not play any further "knock knock, who's there?" the hour was getting late and we are behind on our insurance payments.

ALL ABOARD! 11 a.m. Saturday the "homelike" S.S. Nankin streaked down the bay for Manila southern ports and Australia.

Homeward bound to New Zealand, for a visit of several months went Mrs. W. R. Johnson and the tiny blue-eyed and golden-haired Sheila Johnson who was extremely interested in peeling cigarettes apart when we found her in the cabin.

Dr. Johnson is left behind in Shanghai while his charming family enjoy a vacation and pleasant sea voyage. Have a good time and hope you return soon.

Surrounded by jabbering excited friends were Miss W. McCann and Miss G. Wilcox. These two young ladies have been travelling about these lands here and in the North and are about to call it a wonderful time and return to families in the Australian country. Hope you come up again sometime!

IMPERIAL AIRWAYS
QUITE A FEW of our populace were out at Kai Tak Saturday afternoon having a look see and welcoming the Imperial Airways' two planes which came into the airport at 5.40 and 5.50.

Captain S. Hoare, piloting the second plane, brought letters and packages from home. The first plane, with Captain J. N. Wilson piloting, deposited five visitors to the Colony.

A grouchy old man from London was Mr. R. Taylor. Though he was deaf from his air trip, he glared at us and would have nothing to say. Manila is his destination after a short call here.

Returning from a flying visit of five and a half weeks was the good looking local resident Mr. H. Krebs. He visited Switzerland, his native land, strictly on business. He will remain here for the next six months when he again will depart for Europe.

Mr. S. E. Faber came flying back from London bringing the lovely dark-eyed Mrs. Faber with him. The trip was wonderful, reported Mrs. Faber, who has been living in England since last Christmas.

S.S. Conte Verde
A GOOD CROWD of people at the pier waited with tongues hanging out for the Conte Verde to arrive.

The results for the Portuguese State financial years before 1928 always presented very bad performances. After Salazar's two years in office, with the hampering State-operated services, the budget and the actual accounts closed with very satisfactory credit balances.

Portugal has taken her appointed place among the modern hegemony of States, having also been duly elected to a permanent seat on the Council of the League of Nations. Among the features of her modern developments may be counted her activities in all the fields of construction, social, communication and scientific work. In her social work she has afforded protection to mothers and children, invalids and the unemployed.

five Saturday. Finally 2.30 p.m. she came slowly down the harbour and had herself tied up.

Arriving from Shanghai was the other half of Mr. W. A. Duff's family. Papa was on hand to greet Mrs. Helene Duff and little Miss Eleanor Duff who reached out small hands to grab her father.

This very nice family will take residence in the Colony while Mr. Duff carries on his duties with the American Asiatic Underwriters Co. We welcome this new addition.

S.S. Carthage
TWELVE NOON, there were many white handkerchiefs waving on the pier as the "Carthage" shoved away for the south and England.

Of course you all know Miss Judith Smith has left her parents, Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith, Colonial Secretary, and Mrs. Smith to say "I do" with Lieut.-Comdr. C. R. Vernon Pugh in England. Sailing on this vessel, the charming Miss Smith was hostess to her many friends gathered at the boat to bid bon voyage and best wishes, in which we join.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gregory, the proud parents of one of the popular jockeys here, were aboard the liner bound for London. Flowers galore filled this cabin and all the friends down were sorry to see their departure. We hope your return will be in the near future.

S.S. Tinegara

WHAT IS A typhoon or heavy rain—nothing! This J.C.J.L. steamer came into port 4 p.m. Sunday from Shanghai.

Visiting and doing business for Stemmens and Company are Mr. and Mrs. W. Sommer with a young member of the family down from Shanghai. In this same firm and another arrival was Mr. H. Roth from the Northern Colony.

We hope you will be with us for sometime and will find the Colony to your liking.

NOTES:

Who has the China Clipper of the Pan-American Airways? Hush! don't say anything. It is supposed to be coming in today with mail and passengers from Manila where she stopped over the week-end owing to the typhoon. Arriving last week-end in Manila was the m.v. Potsdam of the Norddeutscher Lloyd Line, however, due to the fact she was in a hurry this packet skipped several of her ports of call on the way out. It is reported that the "Potsdam" left for Singapore on Sunday, consequently she will not arrive here until the end of the week instead of the 7th.

Welcome to Mr. C. Buddington. This is a new member in our midst from the north city of Canton. The Standard Vacuum Oil Company makes use of this young man's services. Yes, he is a bachelor!

SOUTH CHINA FOOTBALL TEAM SURPRISED

Middlesex Beat "A" Eleven By Two Goals To One

Chinese footballers and fans had a terrific surprise sprung on them on Saturday when South China "A", who last week beat Royal Scots by the amazing margin of 10-nil, went down to Middlesex by the odd goal in three after a tense game on their own ground.

It was a very even struggle, ending amidst keen excitement as South China strove might and main in the last few minutes to get the equaliser. They had a great chance when they were awarded a penalty, but Jackson, with a spectacular full-length dive, saved Fung King-cheong's spot kick.

Watson was the outstanding player for the military side, and it was largely due to the magnificent example he set his fellow-defenders in the closing stages that South China were denied the satisfaction of even taking a share of the spoils. It must be added that the Chinese had ill-luck on a number of occasions, but, for their fine defence towards the end, if for nothing else, the winners deserved their success.

Lai Shui-wing scored for South China, while Pearson and Grogan netted for the Middlesex.

Teams:—
South China "A":—Pau Ka-ping; Mak Shui-hon, Lee Tin-sang; Leung Wing-chiu, Lau Hing-choi, Lee Kwak-wai, Tang Kwong-sum, Lai Shui-wing, Fung King-cheong, Kwok Ying-ki and Lau Tau-man.
Middlesex:—Jackson; Watson, Streehan, Freshwater, Bright, Wilkinson, Pearson, Courtney, Grogan, Saw and Marriale.

FIVE CRICKET MATCHES

BOWLERS SUBDUED BATSMEN

PATERSON 8 FOR 11

A fine bowling feat by C.Q. M.S. Paterson for Army seconds against the Indians at Spoken-noo featured Saturday's cricket, in which there was little else of note.

Sending down only 34 balls, which included two maiden overs, Paterson took eight wickets for only 11 runs to dismiss the I.R.C. for 23—this being in reply to the military side's own poor score of 58.

Bowlers, generally, also had the upper hand in the other games, no individual score of 50 being reached. E.M.L. Soares, batting in a Club de Recreio "internal" affair, made 47 before retiring; this, indeed, being the only score above 40.

Indian seniors, last season's joint league champions, also did none too well against the Army first. The game began a bit late, Army's scoring, after a good start, was slowish and by 4 o'clock they only had 105 for seven wickets down, at which point they declared. Due largely to some rather indecisive batting early on, the Indians never really looked like getting the comparatively small total required and at the end had only 73 for the loss of seven wickets.

M. el Arculli made a number of attractive leg-hits for his 23, while M.P. Madar batted very patiently for 11. No one else reached double figures.

A promising innings of 29 by R.T. Broadbridge, B.D. Lay in the usual role of batsman (26 retired) 20 not out by B.G. Baker 38, by T.A. Madar and 31 by S.A. Gray, were the main points of the Kowloon C.C. Trial.

Diocesan Boys' School, thanks mainly to steady bowling by D. Cray (6 for 23) and Rev. C.B.R. Sargent (4 for 39) got Mr. A.M. Prata's side out for 80 and hit this off with the loss of only three wickets. Cray also showed some nice shots in putting together 34 runs, while F.S. Lay had 25.
